Shri Manoj Paranjape, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Satish Gupta, Government Advocate for the State/respondents.

Heard on admission.

The petition has been filed against the order dated 28.8.2004(Annexure P- 3) passed by the respondent No.2, Director, Veterinary Services, Raipur by which the petitioner who is working on the post of Prayogshala Paricharak Rog Anveshan Prayogshala, Bilaspur has been temporarily directed to work on the same post at Raipur.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is working since 1977 on the post of Prayogshala Paricharak Rog Anveshan at Bilaspur who is a Class IV employee and now he has been transferred from Bilaspur to Raipur. He also submits that if the order is allowed to stand and the petitioner is sent to Raipur, it will affect his seniority etc.

I have gone through the petition and I have also heard the learned counsel for the parties at length. No ground has been made as to why aforesaid arrangement, which is purely temporary in nature, should be interfered by this Court. Even assuming that the order is an order of transfer, no grounds of malafide etc. are definitely raised and established, I am not inclined to admit this petition.

The petition is dismissed in limine.
